

Vitality of Juche Idea Approached with Moldova as an Example

Moldovan Youth Union
for the Study of the Juche Idea

Anti-imperialist revolutionaries in Moldova are excited as we are celebrating the Day of the Sun, the birthday of the great leader Comrade Kim Il Sung. The 110th birth anniversary of Comrade Kim Il Sung rouses us to the struggle. A signal of great change, made on April 15, 1912 in Mangyongdae which is distant yet near to us, was heard also in Moldova. Of course, the signal did not reach us at one go. Moldova had to undergo severe trials making serious mistakes and causing troubles before the signal reached us. At last, the signal reached our land, Moldova and armed us with the Juche idea, the most urgent and profound ideology in the present times.

I would like to prove vitality of the Juche idea by citing Moldova, my distress-torn country, as an example.

Enemy of freedom and progress are now employing the strategy and tactics that are very dangerous to us. They are now uttering every word to prove that the most just and invincible Juche idea is suitable only for the DPRK and, accordingly, the people in other countries do not want the Juche idea because its vitality is not available in those countries. In other words, the world imperialists know well that it would become a threat to them in case all people in the world who love freedom accept the universal Juche idea founded by the great leader Comrade Kim Il Sung. However, do you think that the Moldovan people will surrender unconditionally to these gentlemen, the masters of the “new world order”? Do we have the strength capable of checking their aggression?

Proud history of our Moldova will help us. The history began from the ancient times. It is necessary to underline that, though it is the most urgent ideology in the present times, the Juche idea provides us with wonderful means capable of analyzing the past events and enables the anti-imperialist revolutionaries in modern times to correctly analyze at present the events which were happened centuries ago and make correct conclusions capable of applying in their struggle.

In 2009, I donated the International Friendship Exhibition House a beautiful Moldovan carpet depicting Stefan III (“the great emperor”), a well-known Moldovan ruler, as a gift to Comrade Kim Il Sung.

He was one of the greatest rulers in history of Moldova. However, his rule failed to be successful both for prosperity of the country and happiness of the Moldovan working people. Let me analyze the politics of Stefan III on the basis of major principles and ideas of Juche.

1. Did Stefan III believe in his people as in heaven?

Far from it! Stefan was a big feudal lord and despised the working people in Moldova. He invited elite aristocracies to hold lots of banquets and merrymakings. He disliked the broad masses of the Moldovan people to seize power. Centuries passed and now we perceive what his mistakes were. We know that he did not believe in creative strength of his people.

2. Did Stefan III (the great emperor) enforce the politics of relying on strength of his people?

No. His was a politics of gambling with the different forces who exercised power and influence on Moldova. He used to fawn upon the Polish and Hungarian kings, the Turkish sultan, the Crimean Khan and the Russian czar. His politics relied not on one's own strength but on strength of foreign forces. His politics did not believe in the strength of the Moldovan people and their devotion displayed in the struggle for national independence.

3. Did Stefan III ("the great emperor") place "unity" before others?

He did not. Politics that does not believe in creative strength of one's people can never unite the people in one mind and will. The period, when Stefan III saved Moldova from a destructive civil war, was not so long. When he died, Moldova was again drawn into a maelstrom of decay, ruin and chaos. This was, indeed, a judgment delivered upon the politics of Stefan III ("the great emperor.")

I intentionally put the word "the great emperor" in double quotes. It is because the ruler who does not follow the 3 great ideals of the Juche idea is not qualified to be called a true great emperor.

Every ruler in Moldova must keep deep in mind and hold higher the 3 great ideals of the Juche idea, that is, The people are God, single-hearted unity and self-reliance.

We, the Moldovan anti-imperialist revolutionary fighters of the Moldovan Songun Youth Union for the Study of the Juche Idea, are sure that the ways of analyzing based on the Juche idea enable us to win the trust of the working people in Moldova. Only when we win their trust, we can lead the politics in Moldova along the glorious road indicated by the Juche idea, the road illuminated by Comrades Kim Il Sung, Kim Jong Il and Kim Jong Un, the great leaders of the world liberation movement.

Long live vitality of the great Juche idea!

Long live unity between the Korean people and the fraternal Moldovan people!
