

World Greet Day of the Sun with Significance

Teresa Otiniano Castillo,
Chairperson, Peruvian Association for the Study of Comrade Kim Jong Suk's Revolutionary Activities

The DPRK celebrates birthday of the great leader Comrade Kim Il Sung significantly as the Day of the Sun.

The Day of the Sun is one of the most auspicious national holidays in the DPRK.

The DPRK people call Comrade Kim Il Sung, who was born on April 15, 1912, the "sun of the nation".

On April 15 every year the DPRK holds large political and cultural events to pay the biggest respect to Comrade Kim Il Sung, the founder of the DPRK.

Independent and progressive countries and people in the world, too, admire the great leader Comrade Kim Il Sung and celebrate the Day of the Sun.

April 15 is also a day when the world progressives send congratulations to the respected Comrade Kim Jong Un who leads socialist Korea to victory.

Long live international solidarity with the DPRK!
